

Ventures Women's Bible Study
Questions

1. How would you describe Aaron and Miriam in this story (vv. 1-2)? How does this compare with the picture of Moses in verse 3?
2. What is the most awesome part of this story for its principles? And for you?
3. How does the picture of Moses given in vv.6-8 relate to that in v.3?
4. Why do you think that God prefers Moses and punishes Miriam? What does this say about the kind of person God wants to lead His people?
5. What does it say about Moses that he enjoys this kind of fellowship with God and still remain humble?

Ventures Women's Bible Study
Life Applications

1. To whom in your circle of friends might v.3 apply? How does that person exemplify humility?
2. Relative to Moses and the prophets, how does God “speak “with you? How does that help you to be a person God can use?
3. In what ways are you like Aaron and Miriam? How does this affect your relationship with God? With others?
4. What does the concept of “one body” in vs.5 mean to you?
5. How can the other members of the body of Christ help you to use your spiritual gift(s) more fully?