Coatesville, PA 19320

Jordan Crans, Executive Director
Josh Crans, Assistant Director

Mission:

Established in 2002, the Bridge Academy and Community Center (BACC) desires to use the creative arts and community services as means to build relationships with the community, and to educate, serve, and impact the community with the gospel message, ultimately encouraging individuals to become full-devoted followers of Christ.

Serving the Coatesville Community

Forty-five miles west of Philadelphia lies the city of Coatesville, a community of approximately 12,000 nestled in the heart of Chester County, where 22 percent of the residents live below the poverty line. The Bridge Academy is working to see this community transformed by the power of the gospel.

CFC & the BACC

Since 2002, CFC has generously supported the BACC as a local mission providing, prayer, service, and financial support. Each year CFC has provided over 400 backpacks filled with school supplies; tutors, arts and music program workers, work day clean up teams, fundraising and silent auction participation and numerous other volunteer activities.
