

Steve and Patty Sark

Josiah, Emily, Jacob & Sarah

Ministry:

The Sarkes live on the eastern slopes of the Himalayas in Yunnan Province, southwestern China. Steve and Patty serve in this beautiful pristine area of China at an altitude of over two miles high among a least-reached group of Tibetans. Steve works as a general manager of a training company that specializes in English teaching. Patty works diligently as a wife and mother of four young children—Josiah, Emily, Jacob and Sarah. She is also homeschooling the three oldest and provides a ministry of hospitality to locals and co-workers. The Sarkes hope to see a people movement started among these traditionally Buddhist nomads. They have lived in China since 1993 and are fluent in Mandarin; they are seeking to become fluent in Tibetan.
